Ida Kaskinen spoke in Aurora's memory, describing her last moments at the hospital. Aurora had truly prepared herself to meet her God, having accepted salvation and the forgiveness of sins in the blood of Jesus, and she looked forward with joyful anticipation to the moment, when she would meet her Saviour face to face, and be removed from this temporal life to her heavenly home. Aurora had asked for prayers, that she might have a peaceful and blessed departure from this life, and how marvelously her prayers were answered. She fell asleep while a few of her Aurora sisters were pronouncing the benediction over her. We cherish her sweet memory, and are inspired by it to rededicate ourselves to the service of our Lord and Master.

"In heaven above, in heaven above
no tears of pain are shed.
there nothing ever shall fade or die;
Life's fullness round is spread,
and like an ocean, joy overflows
And with immortal mercy glows
our God, the Lord of hosts."

It was decided to give the abiding Memorial Fund of our church a gift of $5 in Aurora's memory, as she had requested that instead of sending flowers for her funeral, the church be remembered. The club also decided to serve coffee after the funeral service on Saturday, honoring the memory of our first president.

The hostesses were given a standing vote of thanks, after which the closing song was sung and all joined in the Benediction.

The social hour which followed enjoying Anna and Sarah's refreshments carried a note of longing for our departed sister, while we felt thankful at the same time, that Aurora is now at rest from her many trials.

Elsie sends regards to Mrs. Gordon from Jobs of flying over pretty nearly every week, usually to Lake Placid in the Capital. Ed is [illegible]
but is very busy.

After a fine visit of about two weeks
Eleanor left for Jersey, and during her visit we had a very pleasant time. We enjoyed the good opera of Aida, and also attended the Hershey opera and have often since said that we ought to feel thankful and happy and strong on Wednesday the 4th June.

We were favored with the lovely piano selections
played by Madame Curtis.

Our only guest at this reception was Dr. Charles Curtis'
Elsie mother-in-law, who is quite of her 87 years
is still young and happy in spirit.

The remainder of the summer was spent enjoying the various opportunities afforded by Elsie and Ed Gordon, and we remained over the Labor Day week with the Gordons. Ed was not home to stay as he was [illegible] flying for some days after we got to Jersey City and we returned to Jersey City and left for home.

Cordially yours,

A discussion followed regarding the matter of refreshments which was tabled last year. It was the opinion of some members that we should eliminate our refreshments to coffee and one thing, be it sandwiches, cookies, cake etc as some regarded too elaborate a table being served, making it hard for some to entertain. It was stated that with simple eats, we could not expect so much cash either, so the matter was left to the hostesses to serve as they wished but not to go to extremes.
